

Klove has helped me through some hard times and lifted me up and has been with me and others at more joyful times. It has let people express their love for Christ. Able to praise the lord through music. Bring the lost to a loving place to find comfort and peace. We need this channel to bring positive outlet through music. I would really be upset if we were to not have this music on the radio.